

A Community Conversation with Mayoral Candidate Andy Shallal

Saturday, January 11, 2014 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm
at Union Temple Baptist Church
1225 W Street, SE

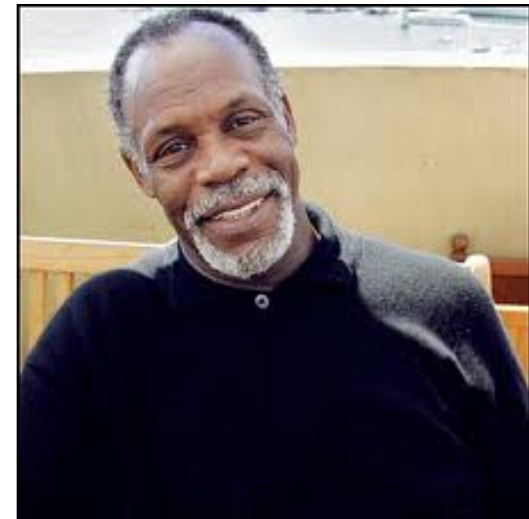

With growing inequality plaguing the city and downtown politicians continuing pay-to-play politics, we ask you to join us in a community conversation with Mayoral Candidate Andy Shallal. With host Reverend Willie Wilson and special guest film star and social activist Danny Glover, we hope you join us in our urgent effort to address community needs.

Hear Andy's plans on jobs, affordable housing, and education and give community feedback. As the owner of Busboys and Poets and Eatonville restaurants, Andy Shallal is the only mayoral candidate who has started and grown his own businesses, paid good wages to over 500+ employees, and has innovative answers to the city's urgent problems.
